TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 1913.

THE CITY.

Water rents are due July 1.
Ed Woodworth is at Chicago.
Wilsey Bayless spent Sunday in Warsaw.

A new elevator is being placed in the Aveline house.

Mr. S. Dittenbaugh, of Hudson, Ind., was in the city to-day.

The men in Bass' and Murray's foundries are working on extra time.

The city council meets this evening to again consider the water works question.

The Glenwood Chapel Sabbath school ran an excursion to Rome City to-day.

Dr. H. V. Swearingen was called to Spencerville, Ohio, on professional business yesterday.

Judge James Cheney, president of the Fort Wayne Gas company, is in the city. Mr. Cheney now resides here.

Two thousand six hundred and seventy-five emigrants went over the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne road last week.

A special meeting of Home Lodge No. 342 F. & A. M., will be held this evening for work on the Apprentice degree.

John Robinson writes us that he will come here July 7 with his entire colossal combination of the ten biggest shows on earth.

The receivers of the Wabash system will, within the next ten days, make a thorough inspection tour over the main and leased lines.

Mr. Newton Wyoth, formerly of this city, is to be married on the 24th of this month to a wealthy young lady of Canton, Ill., Miss Adelaide Heald.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis D. Maier will sail into Benton Harbor, Mich., to-night. Willis writes that the trip has been quite pleasant, but the waters are turbulent.

County Recorder Heller presented all callers at his office yesterday with a cigar. The reporters worked a great racket and lived in a cloud of smoke all day.

The ladies of Trinity English Lutheran church are collecting funds to build an addition to their church, corner of Clinton and Wayne streets, for the use of the Sunday school classes.

The thirteenth annual commencement of the Fort Wayne Conservatory of Music occurs Friday evening at the First Baptist church. The SENTINEL critic acknowledges the receipt of an invitation.

The Lovenberg-Dime show opened at the Academy last night to a fair audience. The entertainment was decidedly clever and the people the best seen here for a long time. The show includes a world of novelties.

To-morrow Olds' employees will run an excursion to Rome City. On Thursday the young men of the St. Johns church will go to the same place, on Friday the Gazette employees, and the democratic first voters of the Eighth ward on Saturday.

At a meeting of the Logansport Jeany Electric Light company Saturday, A. B. Schroyer was elected president, Victor Seiter, secretary and William Dolan business manager. The Fort Wayne house still has an interest in the Logansport business.

The superintendent of the state insane hospital has refused to accept Henry Buhrman, the insane notion dealer. The physician in the case has written a personal letter to the superintendent, enclosing the testimony of Prof. A. Dodge. That will settle the question of Mr. Buhrman's admission.

The new Dorey theater at Anderson has been completed. This is one of the finest furnished and best arranged places of amusement in the state. Mr. Dorey expended $80,000 in the enterprise. Mr. Dorey is the gentleman who managed a bucket-shop here and was elected congressman because of his large boodle.

The superior court convenes Monday next. There is much business before this court that requires immediate attention. After October next, when the criminal court is abolished and all its business transferred to the circuit court, all the civil business of the county will have to be transacted in the superior court.

Billy Boyle is to be hung at Fort Wayne October 1, and Charley Butler will swing at Columbia City October 10. It is also probable that the Backstone murderers may get their necks stretched.

Fred Richards, to be tried here, may get a rope sentence on general principles and Riley may get it because it is a confessed fact that he shot Backstone while Richards and Smith stood watch.

The Wabash road pnt in operation its new line, yesterday, between Chicago and Kansas City. The route is via Forest, Peoria, Pekin, Jacksonville, Hannibal and Moberly, through an important section of country not yet provided with through car service. The trains, composed of Pullman sleepers, palace chair car, dining car and coaches, will run through daily, without change of any kind.

Kunkle's new valve manufactory is under roof.

Mrs. J. W. Scott, of East Wayne street, is dangerously ill.

A grand ball will be given at Driscoll's hall to-morrow evening.

Miss Lou Wiley is entertaining her friend, Miss Bessie Wallace, of Chicago.

The physicians report a considerable amount of sickness in the city at the present time.

Mrs. Walt Tigar, of Chicago, is in the city, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rogers.

A prominent young gentleman, recently married, will be agreeably surprised when he goes home to-night.

The six-year-old daughter of Mr. Bolman, living on McCluskey street, fell from the fence last night and broke her arm.

The county commissioners sat until 10 o'clock last night to listen to the proposition to refuse George Waite, of Maysville, a liquor license.

The Simpson M. E. church fair opens this evening at the church, corner of Dawson and Harrison streets. A general good time is expected.

Henry Fisher, of the Staats Zeitung, goes to Boston Saturday. Henry will return in aesthetic shape and look with scorn on Summit City dudes.

A fellow was locked up for drunkenness yesterday, but last night Marshal Meyer let him go. His wife was quite sick and the marshal's heart softened.

While riding on the New Haven road last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Parry were thrown out of their buggy by a collision with another vehicle. They escaped injury.

Mrs. W. S. Parry, of Ewing street, gave a high tea party last evening in honor of Miss Lillie Wise, a very highly accomplished young lady of Mansfield, Ohio, who is visiting here.

Henry Newhans is now enjoying a two months vacation granted him by S. A. Maxwell & Co., for whom he travels. Henry puts in much time on his farm west of town, and returns to the city considerably bronzed.

At the democratic county convention next Saturday the following officers will be nominated: Judge of the superior court, three representatives in the legislature, prosecuting attorney, county treasurer, sheriff, surveyor and coroner.

Building permits have been granted to Ohria, Walda, to erect a one-story frame house, on a vacant space, Piepenbrink's addition, at a cost of $900, and to August N. Ehle to build a one and a half story brick barn on lot 720, Hanna's addition, at a cost of $800.

The marriage of Miss Lulu Withers to Mr. James Lowry, of Chicago, will be solemnized at Trinity Episcopal church June 25. Miss Withers has selected Miss Katie MacDougal, Miss Georgie Fleming and Miss Jessie White as her bridesmaids. The marriage will be quite a social event.

The north and south roads are being put in shape for a heavy fall traffic. The transportation of watermelons from Florida and Georgia to the northwest is a growing business, and extends from the fore part of June to the middle of September. It is expected that 3,000 car loads will be hauled this year. Fort Wayne fruit merchants have already chartered cars for the melon business.

Daniel McDonald, editor of the Plymouth Democrat and president of the Editorial association, has started for St. Louis by water, intending to make the entire trip in a small canoe thirteen feet long and three feet wide. The distance is several hundred miles, and he has taken sufficient provisions for the journey. His route will be by the Yellow, Kankakee, Illinois and Mississippi rivers.

There will be great sport at the Fair grounds Thursday afternoon, and the sporting editor of THE SENTINEL will be on deck to look at the brush between the Fort Wayne flyers. The horses entered in the roadster race are Fleming's "Jaw," Boltz's "George B," Cary's "Red Eagle" and Pearce's "Lady Waxey." In the colt race, A. C. Ferris names b. g. "Driftwood," F. F. Boltz names ch. m. "Nellie," and F. D. Pearce names b. g. "Judge Hoadley."

The train dispatchers' committee of the Indiana division of the National association, have recommended that the initiation fee be $2, and that each member shall pay seventy-five cents as quarterly dues, or twenty-five cents per month. All train dispatchers or ex-train dispatchers who have had one year's experience and are known to be honorable, moral men, are eligible to membership. The Fort Wayne dispatchers have been notified of the action of the committee.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal has been interviewing Fort Wayne democrats at Washington on the presidential question. Judge Lowry says the convention will not hesitate to nominate McDonald when it gets down to business, and Hon. William Fleming says if McDonald is not nominated it will be a serious blunder, and laughs at the idea of his losing Irish votes, "and you can put it down," he says, "that he will get German republicans enough to more than compensate for the loss of Irish democrats."

Superintendent Law, of the Pittsburg, is in Chicago.

Mrs. Olive Hoyt is visiting her parents at Tontogany, Ohio.

Strawberries are selling at from five to ten cents per quart.

Miss Laura Talbot is visiting her parents at Sharon, Mass.

A young child of Peter Kuntz, on Spy Run avenue, is very sick.

There was quite a market this morning. Market Master Schram collected $1.90.

Cy Fike had a splendid excursion to Rome City, and his party enjoyed themselves hugely.

Leb DeTurk, who was injured by runaway horses yesterday, is still pretty sore. He is unable to leave his bed.

The eighth ward democratic first voters are requested to meet at their wigwag this evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp, corner of Harmer street and Maumee avenue.

Excursions to Rome City have been registered by the St. Johns German Lutheran church on the 7th of August and the Third Presbyterian church on the 6th of September.

Christian Ike, who lives out on the St. Joe road, was in the city to day in all his fury. Last Sunday he laid on the bed and slept. When he awoke a roll of greenbacks, amounting to $36, was missing. Mr. Ike wants his family arrested for robbery. There has frequently been trouble in the Ike household.

Yesterday Hon. R. C. Ball received a letter from his old friends at Muncie, Ind., inviting him to come there July 4. They will not take no for an answer. This places Mr. Ball in a delicate position, inasmuch as he is already booked at Huntington for the glorious fourth. Muncie is Mr. Ball's old home and he dislikes to disappoint them.

Tom Houlahan, a bright young man, has resigned his position under City Clerk Rockhill to accept a place in the Hamilton National bank. Patrick J. McDonald has again been appointed assistant in the city clerk's office by Wright Rockhill. Mr. McDonald is a clever young man and THE SENTINEL is pleased to see him in his old place again.

Ross Gordon, one of the proprietors of the Lafayette Sunday Leader, has sued the Lake Erie and Western railroad company for $10,000 damages, for injuries sustained some months since in a wreck on the road. A passenger car jumped the track and turned upon its side, inflicting injuries to a number of passengers, Gordon among the number.

State Board of Equalization.

The state board of equalization met and organized yesterday morning, at Indianapolis, with Governor Porter president, and Deputy Auditor Bingham secretary. The railroads represented were the following: Wabash, by Col. J. F. Howe, general agent of the receivers; Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago and Union railway, by V. T. Mallot; Fort Wayne, Richmond and Cincinnati, by William Parry; Pelee Lake and Indianapolis and St. Louis, by John T. Dye, G. M. Bosch and P. A. Herriott; Indianapolis and Evansville and Evansville Belt, by Attorney Hughes; Lake Erie and Western, by W. E. Hackard and A. J. Castater; Chicago and Grand Trunk, by F. P. Culver. Statements were made by several of the representatives. The Wabash asked for a reduction of assessment on the ground that it had lost $225,000 during six months last year, and Colonel Howe added that the loss of the Ellettsville railroad was still greater. Supt. P. S. O'Rourke represents the Grand Rapids road and Supt. C. D. Law the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad.

East-Bound Freight Shipments.

The shipments of flour, grain and provisions from Chicago to the east during the week ending Saturday, June 14, amounted to 50,177 tons, compared with 50,615 tons during the preceding week, an increase of 5,562 tons, and against 25,102 tons in 1893, an increase of 31,075. The shipments of flour decreased 1,109 tons, those of grain increased 8,984 tons, and those of provisions decreased 1,609 tons.

The percentages were as follows: Baltimore and Ohio, 13.9; Chicago and Atlantic, 12.1; Chicago and Grand Trunk, 13.2; Pan Handle, 7.7; Lake Shore, 15; Michigan Central, 13.4; New York, Chicago and St. Louis, 11.6; Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 13.7.

The percentages for the corresponding week last year were: Baltimore and Ohio, 6.5; Chicago and Grand Trunk, 22.8; Pan Handle, 13.7; Lake Shore, 22.4; Michigan Central, 13.5; New York, Chicago and St. Louis, 4.8; Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 13.3.

The May Wabash Wages.

Col. J. F. Howe, general agent of the receivers of the Wabash system, is at Indianapolis attending the meeting of the state board of equalization. Mr. Howe was asked by a reporter, with reference to the rumored reorganization of the Wabash system, whether it had been determined to abandon certain leased properties. He said that no conclusion on these matters had yet been reached, and that all newspaper statements purporting to outline the purposes of the Wabash in this particular were unauthorized. He did not know what the intentions were respecting the continuance of the lease of the Wabash branches, but thinks that if a reduction in the rentals of several unremunerative lines is secured the Wabash will be able to pay out under the charge of the receivers. He was of the opinion that the pay car would be re-established now as a regular monthly visitor over the lines, but he did not know when the boys might look for their May wages.
